Monday 29th November 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am sure you have all heard the Prime Minister's response to the new Covid Omicron Variant. These measures are temporary and precautionary, but from tomorrow Tuesday 30th November face coverings will be compulsory in shops and public transport.

In response to the emergence of UK cases of Omicron in England, and in order to keep our families and staff safe in the run up to Christmas, from Tuesday 30th November we have decided to make some minor changes to our Covid Response Policy.

- Parents will no longer be able to enter school without a prior appointment – please use the window of the office
- Visitors will be requested to wear face coverings inside the school building and sanitize hands
- We would encourage parents to speak to Class Teachers via their class email addresses or to telephone the school

Our intention is to continue to welcome families to attend the EYFS and KS1 nativities, however we ask that parents support us with the measures above and wear a facemask.

Let's keep safe and well so we can have a wonderful Christmas with our loved ones and enjoy the festivities planned.

Thank you for your continued support.

Best wishes
