Dear Parents/Carers

KS2 Sports Day Wednesday 29th June

We are pleased to announce details of our Sports Day.

During the morning, children will take part in a range of sporting activities in their houses and have the opportunity to win house points; along with fair play counters - these counters will be used to decide who wins the sportsmanship award for their house. This is a new award and links to our school vision and values – demonstrating COMPASSION, RESILIENCE, FRIENDSHIP, RESPECT AND ASPIRATION.

In the afternoon we would like to invite parents to come along from 1:15pm, to watch their children participate in traditional races.

Races will start at approximately 1:30pm and once all the events are completed parents may take their children home.

It is very important that children bring to school a water bottle, hat and sun cream. In addition, children should wear their PE kit to school. May I take this opportunity to remind parents that PE kit consists of black shorts and a plain T-shirt in the colour of their house.

All the children have been busy practising in their PE lessons so we hope you can come along and join us for an afternoon of fun and excitement.

We look forward to welcoming you to Archbishop Courtenay Primary School on what we hope will be a dry, sunny, yet hopefully not too hot a day!

Mrs E Bourdillon

PE leader
