

1. On the page 'The Ends of the Earth, The South', where does it say who was first to the north pole?
 - Main paragraph
 - In a diagram
 - Fact box with the heading 'First to the Pole'
 - Fact box with the heading 'Nansen'
2. Write a sentence summarising the whole page 'The Ends of the Earth, The South'.
3. On the page 'The Ends of the Earth, The North', who raced to the south pole in 1911?
 - Ernest Shackleton and Robert Scott
 - Roald Amundsen and Robert Scott
 - Ernest Shackleton and Roald Amundsen
 - Robert Peary and Ernest Shackleton
4. Write a sentence summarising the whole page 'The Ends of the Earth, The North'.
5. On the page 'The Ends of the Earth, The Last Unknown', can you give a sub-heading to the first paragraph?
 - Shackleton's Journey
 - Shackleton and the five men
 - The men were saved
 - Four months on ice
6. Write a sentence summarising the whole page 'The Ends of the Earth, The Last Unknown'.
7. Who is this text aimed at?
8. Number the following sentences from 1-5 to show the order in which they happened.

Sentence	Order
In 1915, Ernest Shackleton made one of the most heroic journeys in Antarctica.
In 1908, Ernest Shackleton, a British explorer, discovered the Beardmore Glacier.
Scott and his four men died on the return journey.
1829, John Ross led the Arctic expedition that found the Magnetic North Pole.
In 1959, 12 nations signed a treaty, promising not to claim anymore Antarctic land and to use the area only for peaceful research.

9. What do you notice about the order of the sentences?
10. If these pages were a whole book, what would the name of the book be?