About me:

Hello!

I am Mrs Eades and I am the teacher for Rousseau Class. This academic year is my eighth year at Archbishop Courtenay! Alongside being Rousseau Class teacher, I am also the EYFS lead and Phonics lead. Both I absolutely love as I have a real passion for both of these areas in school.

I live in Maidstone with my husband and dog, she is a cockerpoo and is called Lottie!

What to expect

Expect lots of fun, busy days!

In EYFS we spend a lot of time learning outside so please make sure you have a spare change of clothes, some wellies and a coat. We love to go outside come rain or shine!

We do phonics daily and learn 4 new GPCs a week with a review lesson on a Friday.

We do Maths Mastery sessions every day.

We do guided reading three times a week and this book will be sent home for the children to read. We encourage you to read at least three times a week.

Classroom & Contact

My classroom door is always open so please feel free to come and talk to me, I am also on the door to welcome the children every morning so that is a good opportunity too. In EYFS we also have Tapestry so contact me on there or Dojo.

My Education

After leaving secondary school (I went to Invicta girl's grammar), I then went to Canterbury Christ Church University to complete a degree in Psychology and Early Childhood Studies. I was then a teaching assistant for a year and because I have always wanted to be a teacher, I then went back to University and completed a PGCE.
