Harold cops an eyeful.

In battle , it is believed that four soldiers shot an arrow in Harold's eye . Sadly he died so it lead William to victory . Harold's death caused an end to the of the Battle .

Not so peeved William .

I guess he's not so peeved anymore . He's got what he wanted now, that notorious Norman . We all need to get prepared for our first Norman king.

Notorious Normans

Yesterday, the notorious Normans attacked Britain and defeated us. The onslaught began at 9am in Hastings and Harold's brave men fought against William the conqueror and his men till night. The Normans have been known to be tricksters and pretended to flee but attacked instead. It all began when the notorious Normans shot a gun at a wall of English shields, with little effect. Later on they had a break for food and a little rest .

Peeved William, angry about being over looked for the crown, accused Harold of ruining his dream of becoming King; William assembled an army to fight Harold. He travelled on 300 ships along with 15,000 men under his control . He began the battle of Hastings, to fight for the crown, which he now has.
