1. Find and copy two facts you learn about Remaema's home in the first paragraph.

2. Do you agree with Moawa's attitude to the nabë? Explain your answer, using evidence from the text.

3. If it's OK for the Yanomami people to make small clearings, why is it not OK for the nabë to make bigger clearings?

4. Why is the forest shrinking fast?

5. Give two reasons from the text why we need to save the rainforests.

6. Using information from the text, tick one or two boxes in each row to show which messages are in each of the texts.

Message	Fiction	Non-fiction
Rainforests are being cut down.
The Yanomami people can't live without the rainforest.
Some plants in the rainforests can be used to cure disease.
The rainforests help to control the Earth's climate.
All the trees, plants, creatures and insects must be saved together – it's no use just saving some of them.
