

1

The term Midnight Sun describes the polar night.

2

Polar day and polar night only occur in the polar regions.

3

It will be warmer in the Antarctic in July than in December.

4

At the North and South Poles, there are about six months of polar day and six months of polar night every year.

5

When it is winter in the Northern Hemisphere, it is summer in the Southern Hemisphere.

6

In August it is polar night in the Northern Hemisphere.

7

The tilt of the Earth's axis is the reason why there is polar night and polar day.

8

In July, the North Pole is tilted towards the Sun.

